

Dear 6mR Sailors,

The planning of the 2005 World Championship follows the project schedule, and so far we have pre-registered over 56 entrant yachts! This is in line with our ambitions of attracting around 70 - 80 yachts. The pre-registration allows us to continue the planning for the biggest 6mR-event ever! We do believe there are still around 10 classics and 15 moderns preparing to participate. Make sure you are on site for the most challenging Championship event in 6mR history!

In this second Newsletter you will find information about transportation and logistics both for international and local freight. This has been done in a FAQ-format. By scrolling through the FAQ, you will also find a map of Stockholm including Sandhamn, Bullandö (KSSS's launching harbour for yachts arriving by land) and other relevant locations.

Welcome to the 6 Metre World Championship 2005 in Sandhamn, Sweden!

General information

All information regarding World Championship 2005 in Sandhamn will be published on the official Swedish 6mR website (www.6mr.se). Here you will find all information about the event including logistics, contact persons and pre-entry lists.

Accommodation

The final decision regarding Korsö as accommodation facility (www.6mr.se) is still pending. Hopefully KSSS can start receiving bookings soon. This will vastly increase the accommodation options at Sandhamn and hopefully also resolve the most important issue besides the actual regatta. KSSS informs that there are still 138 beds left in different categories (2005-02-23). The whole Sandhamns Hotel is currently reserved for 6mR World Championship participants. Bookings can be made directly to the hotel (see FAQ below) by referring your reservation to the 6mR World Championship.

The new Web Portal

The new web will soon be ready for launching. The new www.6mr.se will become our communication highway including all needed information about the World Championship 2005. We have put much effort in making the content interesting and easy to navigate through all sorts of topics.

All pre-registered yacht owners will soon receive an email with instructions on how to proceed. This will give yacht owners access to their yachts webpage. Take the opportunity to fill in as much information as possible. By following our guidelines, the information will become searchable in accordance with the visitors search criteria's.

Where is Sandhamn?

Sandhamn is a small Island located in the outer archipelago of Stockholm, only 25 nm from Stockholm City.

An excellent harbour with many possible recreation facilities ashore makes Sandhamn a great place to visit. The old village is clustered tightly around the harbour, with tiny plots of land and narrow, well-trodden alleys between the cottages and fences. The family friendly beaches along with the charming little village with small shops, restaurants and bars creates Sandhamn's unique atmosphere.

Sandhamn is only a 2 h boat-trip from Stockholm, where you will find an endless list of activities including golf, shopping, museums, theatres and music, everything surrounded by water.
